SOUL CARE SPEAKER SERIES

Volunteer Hospice
OF CLALLAM COUNTY

Finding Peace at End of Life

with Mike Milward

Wed. Jan 14, 2026, noon – 1:30 PM PT

Today, most of us will die a death we will see coming. This offers us the opportunity to have conversations of gratitude and reconciliation, come to terms with what our life has meant, and leave a legacy of love. Join us for a discussion about:

- What it means to leave in peace
- The opportunity to leave our loved ones in peace
- Clarity about our wishes both at the end of life and for post death rituals
- What an Ethical Will is.

Mike Milward is a board member with Volunteer Hospice of Clallam County and volunteers as a chaplain. He is a hospice chaplain and a bereavement support facilitator. He graduated with the 2011 cohort from Frank Ostaseski's Metta Insititute End of Life Care Practitioner Certificate Program. He retired as CEO of the Hospice of Santa Cruz County and the California Hospice Network. He is a published author in the field of hospice care and palliative medicine.
